Application for temporary authority

Information Sheet

Please read the following notes before completing the application.

Failure to supply all details in full could see the issue of your order for temporary authority delayed or your application opposed.

A temporary authority is required to operate licenced premises, after you have purchased an existing business, while you apply for your new on and/or off licence.

It is very important because it is the document that authorises you to trade. It is your responsibility to maintain the temporary authority.

How long is a temporary authority valid for?

A temporary authority is valid for up to three months – it cannot be renewed or extended, however, you may apply for a second temporary authority in certain circumstances.

When must I apply for a temporary authority?

The Tararua District Licensing Committee (DLC) requires that you apply for a temporary authority 30 working days before it is required. The sale and supply of alcohol cannot take place unless a temporary authority is in force. The District Licensing Committee must meet to determine the application. The District Licensing Committee meets on the first Friday of each month.

What does a temporary authority cost?

The cost is $296.70 for each temporary authority. If you have an on and off licence you must apply for a temporary authority for each licence.

On what licence conditions is a temporary authority based?

The temporary authority is based on the existing licence of the premises. The conditions of that licence apply. Temporary authorities can only be issued where a valid existing licence is in place.

Important note: If the existing licence is due to run out while a temporary authority is in place you must apply for renewal of the existing licence in addition to applying for a new licence in your own right. Failure to do this means you have no right to trade.

When do I apply for my own licence?

As soon as you receive your temporary authority you must start the process of applying for your own new Licence.

A temporary authority is not a means of avoiding a licence application, and the District Licensing Committee may decline subsequent temporary authorities if no progress is made in obtaining your new licence.

You must remember to apply for any further temporary authorities before the existing one runs out. You will not receive reminders to do so.
